GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.

"Faust" was sung at the Grand Opera-terday, but my, oh my! dign't it look like a House last night in an extremely enjoyable win for Chicago for a few minutes in that manner. The audience was not as large as it might have been, owing to the untheatrical weather. The people present, however, indulged in a good deal of enthusiasm. The cast was as follows: Faust, F. Michelena; Marguerite, Mme. Louise Natalie; Slebel, Miss Appa Russell: Mephtstopheles, N. H. Clark-Valentine, William Mertens; Wagner, F. Bor-

In the big Madison Square Garden Amphitheatre there was a very large audience last night. A musical entertainment of the kind given by Gilmore's Band is rational amusement for this kind of weather. The soloists who as a rule did excellent work, were W. J. Lavin, tenor; Mme. Luckstone Meyers, con tralto; Miss Ida Klein, soprano, and Edward F. Mahoney, basso. The Eagle Quartet did rood work and Miss Ida Klein sang " The Old Folks at Home" very charmingly. Many of the numbers were fervently encored. TONY PASTOR'S.

Hot weather rarely does very much harm at the theatre bearing the name of Tony Pastor. Mr. Pastor usually keeps his house open all Summer, presumably reasoning that even with a very obstreperous mercury people want to laugh. The performance last night was quite interesting. It included John and James Russell, Weber and Fields, Lottle Gil-son, Charles J. Ross, of Ross and Fenton, Miss Nellie Wilson, Matthews and Bulger, Morris Cronin, Frank Riley and Elmer Ransome. H. B. JACOBS'.

The last week of the present theatrical season at H. R. Jacobs' popular house in Third avenue was begun last night, the attraction being a play by the dramatic Frank Harvey, entitled "Woman Against Woman." The play is not new to this city, but is one of the pleces that are seen with pleasure at certain intervals. The story, which is one of dramatic interpress. Is well told, and the stustions are play was well acted throughout KOSTER AND BIAL'S.

Carmencia was the main feature of the pregramme offered at Koster & Bial's concert hall last night. She danced as agreeably as ever. Other attractions were Peggy Pride, Jennie Hill's daughter, who introduced some new songs and dances of the approved English style; Pettengill and his acting deg. Wilton and Van Auken, horizontal bar performers; Wood and Sheppard, Nellie Price-Dow, the Wood family, and "Adam's Temptation; or, Birds of Paridise." WORTH'S MUSEUM.

WORTH'S MUSEUM.

The doors of Worth's Museum were open to the public all day yesterday, and large numbers of people availed themselves of this fact. The performance contained much that was interesting. Among its features were J. R. Ryan, the well-known Irish comedian, who is always entertaining; Colin Varry, the Dutch comedian; Psyche, a dancer; Ed Banker, Louise Stisson, who sang and danced; Dr. Lindsay, W. White, the Gotham City Quartet, and the Reed Birds.

The audience as melted so efficiently by the torrid condi-Columbus Theatre has about was melted so efficiently by the torrid condition of the elements that the pathos of Mr. Behasco's play had very little work to do. The piece was nicely acted and well put upon the stage. It is still vital. Plays that appeal so strongly to human nature live in verdant usefulness, while less youthful efforts dealing with the forced and theatrical side of life, shortstop Shugari, of Minneapolis, is expected to sign by Thursday, and Miller pass into sere yellowness.
